Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 27, to Saturday October 31, 1747.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 27th Day of October, 1747,

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS his Majeſty hath received Information, that many Abuſes have been committed with regard to the granting Certificates for the Rewards allowed to the Sufferers for their Loſſes by Infected Cattle killed and buried, by granting Certificates for Infected Cattle as killed purſuant to the Directions of his Majeſty's Order in Council of the Eighteenth of June laſt, (which directs them to be killed immediately, and ſo ſoon as any Signs or Marks of the ſaid Diſtemper ſhall appear) though in Fact the ſaid Cattle have not been killed, until after they had been long ill of the ſaid Diſtemper, and till they were near expiring; which is contrary to the Directions and Intention of his Majeſty's ſaid Order in Council, and tends greatly to the Spreading the ſaid Contagion—As alſo with regard to the Burying the ſaid Infected Cattle, many of whom are not immediately buried ſo ſoon as they die, or are killed, but are ſuffered to lie above Ground for a conſiderable Time after, and others have been only put into the Ground and not cover'd over, but the Ground kept open, in order to put others expected to die ſoon, into the ſame Burying-place—And that others have not been buried near the Depth under Ground required by the ſaid Order, under Pretence that they could not bury them that Depth by reaſon of the Water, and diverſe other Pretences, by Means whereof Swine and Dogs have come at and fed upon the ſaid Infected Carcaſſes, and thereby carried and ſpread the ſaid Infection to and amongſt Herds of Cattle, which were before found and free from the ſaid Diſtemper.

And whereas there is great Reaſon to apprehend, that Frauds may be committed, either by obtaining double Certificates, or by producing forged and counterfeit, or falſe Certificates, unleſs due Care be taken to prevent the ſame; His Majeſty taking the Premiſſes into his Royal Conſideration, and having a due Regard as well to the Hindering, as far as may be, the Spreading the ſaid Infection, as alſo to the Preventing any Abuſe in the Payment of the Recompences allowed to the ſaid Sufferers, is pleaſed, by and with the Advice of his Privy-Council, to make the following Variations and Additions to the Orders, Rules and Regulations contained in his Majeſty's former Orders in Council of the Eighteenth of June and Eighth of September laſt; and his Majeſty doth by this his Order in his Privy-Council, accordingly order, require, and command,

That when any Owner or Owners of Infected Cattle apply to any Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, for a Certificate of ſuch Infected Cattle having been killed and buried purſuant to the Directions of his Majeſty's Orders in Council, every ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, is carefully to enquire upon Oath, the Time when the Symptoms of the ſaid Diſtemper firſt appeared upon the ſaid Cattle reſpectively, and the Time when they were reſpectively killed, and when reſpectively buried, and where, and how deep, and whether the Earth was cover'd over them, and when, and to have the ſame verified upon the Oath of the Owner or Owners of the ſaid Cattle, and alſo of the Inſpector or Officer who viſited the ſaid Cattle, and where there was no Inſpector or Pariſh Officer, of a credible Witneſs: And as to ſuch of the ſaid Cattle as ſhall not, upon ſuch Examination, appear to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice of the Peace

[Price Four-pence.]

Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, to have been killed and buried within Twenty-four Hours at fartheſt from and after the ſaid Cattle were firſt reſpectively ſeized with the ſaid Diſtemper, at leaſt four Feet deep, and the Earth cover'd in, the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, are hereby ſtrictly charged and commanded not to grant, on any Pretence whatſoever, any Certificate for ſuch Cattle, as killed and buried purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Order in Council: And as to ſuch Cattle, as upon ſuch Enquiry and Examination, ſhall appear to have been killed, buried, and cover'd in, within Twenty-four Hours at fartheſt, from and after their being firſt ſeized with the ſaid Diſtemper, the Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax are hereby required to mention in every Certificate they ſhall hereafter grant for Infected Cattle killed and buried, that ſuch Examination had been made on Oath, touching the Time the ſaid Cattle were firſt ſeized with the ſaid Diſtemper, and the Time of their being killed and buried.

That the Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, do not, on any Pretence whatſoever, grant any Certificate for the Reward for the Hides or Skins of Cattle that die of the ſaid Infection, unleſs it be firſt made appear to him or them, by the Oath of the Owner or Owners of ſuch Cattle, and alſo by the Oath of an Inſpector or Pariſh-Officer, or, if they cannot be had, of a credible Witneſs, that the ſaid Cattle were reſpectively buried immediately, and at fartheſt within three Hours after they died, at leaſt four Feet deep, and the Earth cover'd in, and then to mention in the Certificate that ſuch Proof hath been made.

That every Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, do within three Days after the End of every Month, in which any Certificate or Certificates for Infected Cattle ſhall be granted by him or them, tranſmit a Liſt or Liſts under his or their Hand or Hands, of all ſuch Certificates as ſhall have been granted and ſigned by him or them within ſuch Month, mentioning the Date of each Certificate, the Name and Place of Reſidence of the Perſon or Perſons to whom granted, and the Amount of the Allowance or Allowances in each Certificate, to the Clerk of the Peace for the reſpective Counties in which ſuch Certificates ſhall have been ſigned; which Certificates the ſaid reſpective Clerks of the Peace are hereby enjoined and required forthwith to tranſmit to John Sharpe, Eſq; the Sollicitor of his Majeſty's Treaſury, at his Chambers N° 11. in Lincoln's Inn, or to Mr. Thomas Le Heup his Aſſiſtant, at his Chambers N° 13. in Lincoln's Inn, for their Guidance, and as a Cheque in the Payment of the Rewards due on ſuch Certificates: And to the End that theſe Directions may have their intended Effect, it is hereby further ordered, that the ſaid Recompence ſhall not be paid upon any ſuch Certificates, until fourteen Days after ſuch Liſt or Liſts ſhall be received by the ſaid Sollicitor of the Treaſury or his ſaid Aſſiſtant; and that no Certificates be paid by the ſaid Sollicitor or his ſaid Aſſiſtant, but ſuch only as are included in the ſaid Liſts.

That every Juſtice of the Peace, and Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, before the granting of ſuch Certificates, do examine upon Oath the Perſon or Perſons claiming ſuch Rewards, and applying for ſuch Certificates, very ſtrictly, whether he, ſhe or they, or any other Perſon or Perſons, for or on his, her, or their Behalf, have not before obtained any Certificate or Certificates for ſuch Rewards for the ſame Cattle, and do thereupon mention in the Certificates, that ſuch Oath hath been made, and ſuch Examination taken: And if the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, or Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, find juſt Reaſon to apprehend, that there is any Fraud or Colluſion with regard to the ſaid Cattle, or that the Cattle ſo Infected were brought into any Infected Place contrary to the Intent and Meaning of his Majeſty's ſaid former Orders in Council for preventing the Spreading the Infection, or that they had before obtained any Certificate for the ſame, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, they do refuſe granting any ſuch Certificates.

And whereas notwithſtanding his Majeſty did, by his ſaid former Orders in Council, require, that all Perſons thereby empowered to grant Certificates for any of the Purpoſes therein mentioned, ſhould grant the ſame gratis; yet it hath been repreſented to his Majeſty, that ſeveral of the Juſtices of the Peace and qualified Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, have ſuffered their Clerks to take Money of the unfortunate Sufferers for granting ſuch Certificates; His Majeſty taking the ſame into Conſideration, and having a tender Regard and Compaſſion for the ſaid poor Sufferers, doth declare himſelf highly diſpleaſed therewith; and doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, hereby order and command, That the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax empowered to grant ſuch Certificates, do grant the ſame gratis, purſuant to the Directions of the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of the laſt Parliament; and that they do not ſuffer their Clerks, under any Pretence whatſoever, to take any Fee or Reward for making out ſuch Certificates, or for any Acts done in relation thereto; and that neither ſuch Clerks, or any other Perſon or Perſons any way employed or concerned in the Iſſuing ſuch Certificates, do preſume to ask, demand, receive or take any Fee, Reward, Gratuity, or Sum of Money whatſoever, under Pretence of making out ſuch Certificates, or for any Act or Thing done in relation thereto; and that the like Directions be obſerved in granting all other Certificates required to be given by his Majeſty's ſaid former former Orders in Council relating to the Diſtempered Cattle.

And whereas Information hath been given, that ſome of the Agents in London, employed by the Sufferers to receive the Rewards payable on ſuch Certificates, have endeavoured to impoſe upon the ſaid Sufferers, by charging Money as paid to the Clerks of the Sollicitor of the Treaſury or his Aſſiſtant, by way of Recompence or Reward for paying the ſame, with an Intent to make a fraudulent Gain for themſelves; and it having appeared, after due Enquiry made, that the Sollicitor of the Treaſury, his Aſſiſtant, or Clerks, have not, in any caſe, taken, or received any Fee or Gratuity on Payment of the ſaid Rewards, in any Manner whatſoever; — It is therefore thought proper, for the Information of the ſaid Sufferers, to make the ſame known to them, as likewiſe, that all Certificates duly granted by the ſaid Juſtices and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, will be anſwered and paid in like Manner as they have hitherto been, without any Fee, Deduction, or Gratuity whatſoever.

And for the better preventing the ſpreading of the ſaid Infection, his Majeſty doth hereby order, That no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, whether fat or lean, nor any Hide or Skin of ſuch Beaſts, be ſuffered to paſs the River Merſey Northwards, until his Majeſty's Pleaſure be further ſignified; and for that Purpoſe, his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, as alſo the Commiſſioners of the Land Tax qualified as aforeſaid, of the Counties, Hundreds, Ridings and Diviſions through which the ſaid River runs, are hereby required to cauſe ſtrict Watch to be conſtantly kept, to guard all the Bridges, Fords, Boats and Ferries upon the ſaid River, and to carry all Offenders herein before the next Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax as aforeſaid, to be dealt with according to Law.

That no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, either fat or lean, ſhall be driven or removed but between the Hours of Six in the Morning, and Six in the Evening.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all the Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, to hold a Meeting once a Fortnight at leaſt within their reſpective Diviſions, of the Counties where the ſaid Diſtemper rages, and ſtrictly and punctually to perform and execute, all and every the Matters and Things required of them by the Acts of Parliament relating to the diſtempered Cattle, and alſo by his Majeſty's Orders in Council of the Eighteenth of June, and Eighth of September laſt, and alſo by this preſent Order; particularly with regard to the killing and burying the Cattle, under Pain of his Majeſty's higheſt Diſpleaſure: And that they do levy the Penalties inflicted by Law on all ſuch who ſhall tranſgreſs any of the Rules and Regulations contained therein; and do not fail to tranſmit an Account of their Proceedings from Time to Time, to the Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, as they will anſwer the contrary.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette, and be likewiſe read, together with the ſaid former Orders of Council, in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip, on ſuch Sunday in every Calendar Month as the Miniſter of ſuch Pariſh ſhall think proper, agreeable to what is required by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of the laſt Parliament.

William Sharpe.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 27th Day of October, 1747.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS ſeveral Petitions have been preſented to his Majeſty at this Board, in Behalf of Dealers in Welſh and Scots Cattle, ſetting forth, That they had bought ſeveral Droves of lean Horned Cattle for the Supply of the Graziers in Eſſex, Kent, Hampſhire, Norfolk, Suffolk and Suſſex, as uſual at this Seaſon of the Year, and that they had actually cauſed all the ſaid Droves to be driven towards the ſaid reſpective Counties for Sale, before they had any Intelligence of his Majeſty's Order in Council of the Eighth of September laſt, laying a Prohibition on the buying, ſelling or removing lean horned Cattle; and that the ſaid Droves having been lately ſtopt by the Juſtices of the Peace, in purſuance of his Majeſty's aforementioned Order in Council, the Petitioners are thereby prevented from driving the ſaid Cattle to the ſaid Places intended, and moſt humbly pray, in regard to their being ignorant of the ſaid Order, and that there hath been no Diſtemper amongſt the horned Cattle either in Wales or Scotland, and that all the Droves ſo ſtopt are in good Health, that they may be permitted to drive them as uſual, to the Places intended for Sale: — And whereas ſeveral Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax have certified to this Board, that ſeveral Herds of Welſh and Scots lean Cattle have

And the ſaid Juſtices and Commiſſioners have alſo certified, that upon Examination on Oath of the Perſons belonging to the ſaid Droves, all the ſaid Cattle were free from any Diſtemper, and that there had been no Diſtemper amongſt the Cattle either in South or North Wales, or in North Britain, and that the ſaid Cattle were upon the Road driving from thence, to their reſpective Markets and Fairs for Sale, before the Commencement of his Majeſty's Order of Council aforementioned:—— His Majeſty in Council this Day took the ſaid Petitions and Certificates into his Royal Conſideration, and is pleaſed, in regard to the particular Circumſtances attending the ſaid Cattle, by this his Order made in his Privy Council, to permit and allow all the ſaid Cattle to be diſpoſed of, under the following Reſtrictions, viz.

1ſt.——"That the Juſtices of the Peace, and "Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, in the "reſpective Counties, who returned the Cer- "tificates relating to the abovementioned "Droves, or any two other Juſtices of the "Peace, or qualified Commiſſioners of the "Land Tax in the ſaid Counties, do cauſe a "freſh Inſpection to be made into the pre- "ſent State of Health of the ſaid Cattle.

And his Majeſty doth require and command all Manner of Perſons ſtrictly to conform themſelves to the above Regulations.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, do make Returns to the Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, of all that they ſhall have done in Purſuance hereof; and for the better notifying of this Order, that the ſame be publiſhed in the London Gazette.

William Sharpe.

Petersbourg, Sept. 22. Count Vicedome, the Saxon Envoy, has taken his Leave of this Court, and ſet out on Thurſday laſt, his Health not permitting him to ſtay any longer in this Northern Country; and a few Days ago arrived M. Wolfenſteirn, the Swediſh Envoy formerly at the Court of Dreſden, to relieve Count Bark who is going to Vienna.

Hague, Nov. 3, N. S. The Anſwer intended to be given to M. de la Ville's Memorials, was deliberated upon and unanimouſly agreed to laſt Tueſday in the Aſſembly of the States of Holland. It was expected that this Day it would have been carried to the States General, but but it has been poſtponed till To-morow. Nothing farther has yet been done in this Province about the Hereditary Succeſſion. It is now ſaid, that this Affair will be offer'd next Wedneſday to the Conſideration of the States of Utrecht, when it is thought it will meet with little or no Oppoſition. Upon the Diſturbances which have lately happened in the ſeveral Quarters of Guelderland, it has been thought proper to convoke immediately the States of that Province, in order to reſume their Deliberations about the Prince of Orange's Commiſſion, the Fiftieth Penny, and the Hereditary Succeſſion. By the Letters received this Day from Paris we hear, that on the 20th of laſt Month, Marſhal de Belleiſle, after having repulſed all the advanced Poſts of M. de Leutrum, had forced him to raiſe the Blockade of the Caſtle of Ventimiglia, and to retire from Campo Roſſo to Bordighera, leaving only a ſmall Body of Troops in the Town of Ventimiglia to cover his Retreat. Things here are like to be put in ſuch a Situation againſt the Winter, that we ſhall not be under any Apprehenſion from any Attempts of the Enemy.

St. James's, October 28.

This Day his Majeſty, and the Royal Family, came from Kenſington to St. James's for the Winter Seaſon.

St. James's, October 30.

This being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth-day, his Majeſty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction. At Night there was a Ball. The Appearance was at both Times very numerous, and extremely ſplendid. On this Occaſion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Whitehall, October 31.

The King has been pleaſed to order a Congé d'Elire to paſs the Great Seal, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Metropolitical Church of Canterbury, to elect an Archbiſhop of that See, the ſame being void by the Death of the moſt Reverend Father in God Dr. John Potter, late Archbiſhop thereof; and alſo to order a Letter under his Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual, naming and recommending to the ſaid Dean and Chapter the moſt Reverend Father in God Dr. Thomas Herring, Archbiſhop of York, to be by them elected to the ſaid See of Canterbury.

Admiralty Office, October 31.

Rear Admiral Hawke arrived at Spithead the 29th Inſtant in the Afternoon, with Part of the Squadron of his Majeſty's Ships under his Command, and all his Prizes, having ſent the Remainder of his Squadron into Plymouth, to clean and refit for the Sea.

London, October 29.

Yeſterday Sir Robert Ladbroke, Knt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year enſuing, was ſworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Enſigns of Mayoralty were ſurrendred to him in the accuſtomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-ſide, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City-Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the ſeveral Companies in their reſpective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Weſtminſter; and having walked round the Hall, and ſolemnly ſaluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Friers, and from thence in Coaches with the uſual Solemnity to Guildhall; where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were preſent the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction.

Whitehall, October 24, 1747.

Whereas it has been repreſented to the King, That the Houſe of Mr. Edward Seabrook, at Stamford in Lincolnſhire, was, in the Night betwixt the 25th and 26th of September laſt, broke open and robbed: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the ſaid Edward Seabrook does hereby promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Edward Seabrook.

Whitehall, October 16, 1747.

It having been repreſented to the King, That on Wedneſday the 7th Inſtant, between Twelve and One of the Clock in the Morning, a conſiderable Number of Perſons, arm'd with Muskets, Piſtols, and Swords, went to the Cuſtom houſe at Poole in Dorſetſhire, and placed a Guard upon the Watchmen, and all other Perſons, whom they met with in the Streets; and then broke open the outward Door of the ſaid Cuſtom-houſe, and the Door of the Collector's Office, and one other Door leading to the King's Warehouſe; declaring, they were come for their Tea; and accordingly took from thence all the Tea, which had been lately ſeized by Capt. Johnſon, Commander of the Swift Privateer, being upwards of Four Thouſand Two Hundred Weight, and carried the ſame to a Place in the ſaid Town, where their Horſes waited; obliging the Watchmen to go and remain with them, till they had loaded them: That they were upwards of Sixty in Number, with about Thirty Horſes; and that they left behind them, in their Hurry, a Crow Bar of a new and uncommon Make; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned therein, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, who ſhall diſcover any one, or more of his Accomplices, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Cuſtom-houſe, London, October 16, 1747.

And as a further Encouragement for bringing the Offenders to Juſtice, the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms do hereby promiſe a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for the diſcovering and apprehending each of the Perſons concerned in breaking open the ſaid Warehouſe, and carrying off the Tea; to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Cuſtoms, upon the Conviction of each Offender reſpectively: And if any of the Perſons, who were concerned in the Offence above-mentioned, will diſcover any of his Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them, may be apprehended, he ſhall receive the like Reward of Two Hundred Pounds; to be paid upon the Conviction of each Offender; and will alſo be entituled to his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon, as above declared.
